University tour in the run-up to the European Elections 2024

European Parliament Liaison Office in Germany

This event, organized by the European Parliament Liaison Office in Germany, features a university tour in the lead-up to the European Elections 2024. The lecture includes expert insights from Michael Gahler, a Member of the European Parliament, and Elizabeth Pender and Julia Thunecke from the Liaison Office, aiming to engage students and the community in a discussion on European politics. The lecture offers a valuable platform to explore the significance of the upcoming elections and foster dialogue on European Union matters. This lecture will be held online. However, it will also be streamed live in Room 302 in Building 22 at Hochschule Fulda.
