

Lecture Series

Europe in the World: Conflicts, Politics, Values

International Workshop

Open for everyone

30.November

13:30-20:00

13.30 – 15.30 “What is Europe? What is “the World”?”

1. Claudia Wiesner - The Meanings of Europe

2. Knud Erik Joergensen - War and Peace in European Studies:
a Zeitenwende

3. Oriol Costa Fernandes - Back to the roots? The War in Ukraine and Grand Theories in IR

Coffee

16.00 – 18.00 “Politics, Depoliticisation, and EU Diplomacy”

1. August Danielson – The Political and the Technical: How the Depoliticization of EU Foreign Policy Enables the Forging of Consensus

2. Federica Bicchi (online) – ‘Renaissance’ of European diplomacy or flight from reality? Perils and promises of European diplomacy in the digital age

3. Elsa Hedling (online) – ‘Visibility’ to Promote or Protect the Image(s) of the EU?: The EEAS and the shifting conditions for the EU in the World

Coffee

18.30 – 20.00 Europe and the new wars – roundtable discussion

Lecture Series

Europe in the World: Conflicts, Politics, Values

International Workshop

Open for
everyone

01. December

09:00-15:30

09.00 – 10.30 “Europe in the World: Normative Power”

1. Roberto Dominguez – The Myths of European Soft Power in Latin America: Ownership and Multiple Normative Referents
2. Theresa Reinold – Can the European model of liberal democracy survive in captured states? Evidence from the global South

Coffee

11.00– 12.30 “Europe in the World: Policies and Politics”

1. Niklas Heijl Bremberg – Anthropocene politics: climate change and security in CFSP/CSDP
2. Martin Utsch – The European Community and World Trade: From Troublemaker to Status Quo Power”

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13.30 – 15.30 “Enlarging the EU? Challenges of Enlargement”

1. Doris Wydra (online) – EU versus post liberalism: the value of enlargement
2. Andrea Gawrich (online) – Gender equality as contested norm
3. Zhylien Kaja – Navigating the Western Balkans’ EU accession process